

INTERNATIONAL / PACIFIC RIM

Musick Peeler's Pacific Rim Practice Group counsels an array of Asia-based companies investing in the U.S. as well as domestic companies that wish to expand their business operations to Asia. The Group provides strategic advice and technical expertise on business transactions, including:

- Corporate finance and mergers & acquisitions
- Intellectual property protection and litigation
- Litigation and arbitration
- Real estate acquisition, finance and development
- Cross-border commercial and strategic alliance transactions
- Oil and gas, renewable energy and mining

We advise the gamut of business enterprises, from small start-up companies to multinational publicly traded corporations. Our clients include businesses in banking, high-tech, Internet, real estate development, medical device, health care, automotive, pharmaceuticals, renewable energy and bio tech industries. We have a number of bilingual attorneys who are proficient in Mandarin Chinese, Korean, Taiwanese, Cantonese and Japanese.

We advise clients regarding the investment climate, strategic partnering and particular constraints and advantages of Asian commerce, particularly, those dealing with the People's Republic of China, Hong Kong, Taiwan, Korea and Singapore.

Attorneys in the Pacific Rim Practice Group have also assisted companies in the Americas with the following activities:
