Experience

Adam D. Wieder is a senior counsel at Musick, Peeler & Garrett LLP's Westlake Village office. His practice focuses primarily on business and real estate litigation. Mr. Wieder handles business disputes involving commercial transactions, partnerships, contracts, and securities. He also represents property owners, investors, developers, and lenders in a wide range of real estate matters.

Mr. Wieder also has experience in environmental law, litigating federal and state court actions dealing with land use, air, and water issues. Mr. Wieder's environmental practice is focused on representing public and private sector entities, including cities, school districts, public water districts, large international corporations, industrial/manufacturing companies, and national banking institutions.

Mr. Wieder's recent work includes successful representation of an accounting firm in a professional liability action for its audit of a publicly traded company; a school district in federal court litigation involving contaminated soil cleanup; and investors in a foreign currency exchange Ponzi scheme in a trial against a bankruptcy trustee.

While at Loyola Law School, Mr. Wieder served as a judicial extern to the Honorable Arthur M. Greenwald, United States Bankruptcy Judge for the Central District of California. Mr. Wieder is fluent in Spanish and Hebrew, and has lived, studied, and taught in various parts of the world, including South America, Israel, Italy, and Taiwan.

Mr. Wieder is a member of the American Bar Association, the Los Angeles County Bar Association, the Real Estate Law Section of the California State Bar, and the Ventura County Bar Business Litigation Section.
