

RICHARD S. CONN

PARTNER

Office: Los Angeles

Phone: (213) 629-7812

Fax: (213) 624-1376

Email: r.conn@mpglaw.com

Experience

Richard S. Conn is a partner in the firm's Los Angeles office. Mr. Conn specializes in business, creditors' rights and probate litigation. His practice also involves defense of professional liability claims against attorneys arising in the context of business, bankruptcy or probate representation. Mr. Conn has also represented several Southern California universities in trust and commercial litigation.

Mr. Conn has served as an arbitrator for the Santa Monica Municipal Court and is a frequent contributor to Los Angeles Lawyer Magazine, a publication of the Los Angeles County Bar Association. His published articles are as follows:

"Caveat Donor for Charitable Giving," Los Angeles Lawyer, July/Aug. 2010. \(PDF\)

"The Need to Clarify Creditors' Rights in Probate," Los Angeles Lawyer, April 2009. \(PDF\)

"First Contact -- Critical Evidence Can Often Best Be Uncovered Through the Appropriate Use of Informal Discovery," Los Angeles Lawyer, October 2004. \(PDF\)

Mr. Conn is admitted to practice in all federal and state courts in California as well as the United States Tax Court.

Education

- Brown University; Columbia University, B.A., magna cum laude, 1971
- UCLA School of Law, J.D., 1975

Bar Admissions

- State Bar of California

Practice Areas

- Litigation

- Trusts & Estates