

Beth Kahn

PARTNER

Beth Kahn is a Partner in the firm's Labor & Employment Practice Group. She represents private and public employers in employment-related litigation including wage and hour issues, wrongful termination, retaliation, whistleblower, discrimination, harassment, ADA, negligent hiring/supervision, and violations of constitutional rights and civil rights. She defends employers in class actions, Private Attorneys General Act (PAGA) cases, and individual matters in federal and state courts, as well as before administrative agencies. As part of her practice, Ms. Kahn advises employers, their supervisors, and human resource professionals concerning employee issues including hirings, layoffs, wage and hour compliance, terminations, and other disciplinary actions. She drafts employee handbooks and other personnel policies and documents and conducts investigations, audits, and provides employer-required and managerial training.

In addition, Ms. Kahn has handled civil rights matters on behalf of public entities, law enforcement officers, and social workers. She was lead counsel in two landmark decisions, Alicia T. v. County of Los Angeles (1990) 222 Cal.App.3d 869, 271 Cal.Rptr. 513 (absolute immunity under Title 42 U.S.C. § 1983 for county social workers in connection with their investigation of child abuse and instigation of dependency proceedings) and Elene H. v. County of Los Angeles (1990) 220 Cal.App.3d 1445, 269 Cal.Rptr. 783 (Court of Appeal affirms summary judgment for sheriff's deputies in child abuse case brought by parents to whom a child was subsequently returned).

Ms. Kahn held leadership positions at her prior firms including Practice Group Leader for Employment Law, Co-Business Unit Leader for Labor and Employment, Practice Group Leader for Civil Rights and Governmental Liability and Executive Committee member. Ms. Kahn frequently speaks at seminars on employment law topics and regularly writes for employment publications.
