Natasha M. Wu

PARTNER

Natasha Wu is a Partner in the Firm's Orange County office. Ms. Wu represents and counsels corporate clients in a variety of litigated issues, with a focus on transportation, products liability, business, and employment matters. She also defends and advises public sector agencies, municipalities, and special districts, and educational institutions, including K-12 districts, charter schools, and universities, in litigation and other employment-related matters.

Ms. Wu's experience includes representing Fortune 500 companies, automotive manufacturers, product manufacturers and suppliers, and technology companies in multi-party tort, fraud, and products liability actions. Ms. Wu also has significant experience in high-stakes construction disputes, having successfully represented residential and commercial developers, general contractors, and subcontractors in complex construction, contract, and personal injury litigation to resolution at no net-loss to her clients.

Ms. Wu is a talented legal writer and has often delivered victories for her clients through pre-trial motions, including demurrers, motions for summary judgment, and various motions to dismiss. She has also obtained pre-trial dismissals for her manufacturer clients on jurisdictional grounds in multiple state courts. Ms. Wu represents clients in federal and state courts, and in administrative hearings, including before the Division of Labor Standards Enforcement, the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, and the Workers' Compensation Appeals Board.

Ms. Wu is conversational in Mandarin Chinese.
