Bankruptcy & Creditors' Rights

Musick Peeler's Bankruptcy and Creditors' Rights Group attorneys represent lenders, business people, insurance companies, health care providers and other creditors, in all aspects of bankruptcy, insolvency and creditors' rights matters. We provide a wide range of advisory and crisis-management guidance to businesses facing the risk of their customers, borrowers and other debtors facing insolvency.

Our Bankruptcy attorneys handle all aspects of the representation of creditors, both secured and unsecured, in bankruptcy and insolvency matters. We provide sophisticated counsel in complex bankruptcy proceedings, including relief from automatic stay, preference litigation, cash collateral motions, reorganization and Chapter 11 Plan analysis, purchases of assets and property from bankrupt debtors and the impact of bankruptcy on landlord and tenant issues.

Our Creditors' Rights attorneys handle all aspects of loan collection matters, including real and personal property foreclosures, debt restructuring, assignment for the benefit of creditors (ABCs), problem loan identification and review, workout strategies, lender liability claims, Receiverships, participation agreements, inter-creditor agreements, loan servicing issues and purchase and sale of distressed loan portfolios.

Musick Peeler attorneys recognize that issues of bankruptcy, insolvency and collection affect many of the Firm's practice groups, even in a strong economy. In that regard, the Bankruptcy and Creditors' Rights attorneys also provide valuable assistance to the other practice groups in developing and implementing our clients' business objectives.
