International Arbitration & Cross-Border Dispute Resolution

Musick Peeler's International Arbitration and Litigation Group is a globally oriented practice based in California, with a strong presence in Los Angeles. Our attorneys represent clients in high-stakes international arbitration matters across Europe, the Middle East, Asia, and North America, particularly in the construction, energy, renewable energy, entertainment, aerospace, and sports sectors.

Our team has served as counsel in arbitrations under the ICC, ICDR, DIAC, UNCITRAL, NAI, WIPO, AAA, and ad hoc rules, with seats ranging from California, Paris, London, Abu Dhabi, Geneva, and Zurich to Doha, Rotterdam, and New York. We regularly advise sovereigns, multinational corporations, and private clients on all stages of cross-border dispute resolution—from arbitration clause drafting and jurisdictional strategy to complex enforcement proceedings under the New York Convention.

Drawing on deep ties to the international arbitration communities in California and abroad, our attorneys include recognized leaders in international arbitration, with experience serving as counsel in multi-billion-dollar disputes, teaching at top U.S. law schools, and contributing to global arbitral thought leadership. As a member of Ally Law, Musick Peeler leverages a network of over 70 international firms in 100+ jurisdictions to offer seamless global support to clients.
